How to Use This Book

Each page has two parts:

- Story Text for Kids — 2–4 simple, magical sentences to read aloud.
- AI Image Prompt — a richly detailed prompt written for a polished digital children's-book illustration look, kept visually consistent from page to page, full-bleed with no borders.

This book follows the Aranya Kanda storybook and leads into the Sundara Kanda. For best results, paste the Master Style Block (below) together with each page's prompt, or simply use each prompt as-is.

Master Style Block (for visual consistency)

Medium & style: Richly detailed digital children's-storybook illustration, in the style of a modern Illustrated Ramayana for Children cover — semi-realistic yet softly stylized characters with expressive friendly faces, large warm eyes and smooth skin; polished digital painting with gentle cel-shading, soft airbrushed gradients and crisp clean highlights; finely detailed costumes, fur, ornaments and weapons; lush painterly backgrounds with atmospheric depth and soft focus.

Lighting: warm cinematic directional light with a gentle glowing rim-light and soft ambient glow.

Colour: vibrant, saturated, harmonious — forest greens, saffron, marigold gold, turquoise, rose-magenta and deep indigo.

Skin tones: Only Rama (and, where they appear, divine forms of Vishnu and Shiva) has gentle blue/teal skin; every other character has a natural human skin tone — warm golden-brown, fair or tawny — and is never blue. Vanaras (monkey-people) keep natural fur colours.

Costume: strictly ancient, traditional Indian attire — dhotis, angavastrams, draped saris, mukut crowns and traditional gold jewelry, bark-cloth and deerskin for forest-exiles, classical robes and armour — with absolutely no modern clothing, fabrics, footwear or accessories.

Composition: dynamic, full-bleed, edge-to-edge, absolutely no border and no frame. Aspect ratio 4:3 (use portrait 3:4 for a cover).

The End of Kishkindha Kanda

*This completes Book Four of the Ramayana — the Kishkindha Kanda ("The Book of Kishkindha") — retold in 21 chronological pages, faithfully preserving its core events and moral depth: the meeting with Hanuman, the friendship and sacred pact between Rama and Sugriva, Sita's fallen jewels, the story of Bali and Sugriva, the duel and Bali's reconciliation, Sugriva's coronation, the forgotten promise and Tara's wise counsel, the gathering of the monkey-armies, the search in four directions, Rama's ring, Sampati's clue that Sita is in Lanka, and Hanuman's mighty preparation to leap across the sea — woven throughout with gentle lessons of friendship, loyalty, keeping promises, justice and dharma, humility, and believing in your own God-given strength.

Tips for consistent illustrations:

1. Generate Page 3 first to lock in Hanuman, then reuse him; do the same for Rama/Lakshmana (forest-exile dress), Sugriva, Jambavan and Angada.
2. Keep the Master Style Block and Character Reference Sheet pasted at the top of every prompt.
3. Use the same aspect ratio (4:3) and the "digital children's-book illustration ... full-bleed, no border, no frame" keywords on every page so this book matches the rest of the series.
4. Render the vanaras as noble, friendly monkey-people (not cartoonish or wild), and keep the Bali fight gentle and non-gory, so it stays heroic and kid-friendly.
