How to Use This Book

Each page has two parts:

- Story Text for Kids — 2–4 simple, magical sentences to read aloud.
- AI Image Prompt — a richly detailed prompt written for a polished digital children's-book illustration look, kept visually consistent from page to page, full-bleed with no borders.

This book follows the Kishkindha Kanda storybook (and is the great adventure of Hanuman). For best results, paste the Master Style Block (below) together with each page's prompt, or simply use each prompt as-is.

Master Style Block (for visual consistency)

Medium & style: Richly detailed digital children's-storybook illustration, in the style of a modern Illustrated Ramayana for Children cover — semi-realistic yet softly stylized characters with expressive friendly faces, large warm eyes and smooth skin; polished digital painting with gentle cel-shading, soft airbrushed gradients and crisp clean highlights; finely detailed costumes, fur, ornaments and architecture; lush painterly backgrounds with atmospheric depth and soft focus.

Lighting: warm cinematic directional light with a gentle glowing rim-light and soft ambient glow.

Colour: vibrant, saturated, harmonious — turquoise ocean blues, saffron, marigold gold, rose-magenta, royal crimson and deep indigo.

Skin tones: Only Rama (and, where they appear, divine forms of Vishnu and Shiva) has gentle blue/teal skin; every other character has a natural human skin tone — warm golden-brown, fair or tawny — and is never blue. Vanaras (monkey-people) keep natural fur colours.

Costume: strictly ancient, traditional Indian attire — dhotis, angavastrams, draped saris, mukut crowns and traditional gold jewelry, bark-cloth and deerskin for forest-exiles, classical robes and armour — with absolutely no modern clothing, fabrics, footwear or accessories.

Composition: dynamic, full-bleed, edge-to-edge, absolutely no border and no frame. Aspect ratio 4:3 (use portrait 3:4 for a cover).

Character Reference Sheet (keep consistent on every page)

- Lakshmana — fair golden-brown skin, saffron exile dress, devoted; at Rama's side.

Then Hanuman placed Sita's shining hair-jewel in Rama's hands, along with her loving message of hope. Rama held it close, his heart full of love and resolve. Soon he would gather his great army, cross the sea, and bring his beloved Sita home — but that is the next adventure!

AI IMAGE PROMPT

A tender, hopeful closing scene at golden hour. The devoted Hanuman gently places Sita's sparkling hair-jewel (chudamani) into Rama's open hands; Rama holds it to his heart with a tender, loving, resolute expression, gazing toward a glowing horizon as if already seeing the path ahead. Lakshmana, Hanuman and the vanara friends stand together, united and hopeful, looking out toward the distant sea and Lanka. Surroundings: a sunlit hilltop or shore, the shining ocean and a faint golden island in the far distance, warm sweeping light, a sense of a great quest about to begin. Full-bleed, edge-to-edge, no border, no frame; aspect ratio 4:3.

The End of Sundara Kanda

*This completes Book Five of the Ramayana — the Sundara Kanda ("The Beautiful Book") — retold in 24 chronological pages, faithfully preserving its core events and moral depth: Hanuman's mighty leap across the ocean, the tests of Mainaka, Surasa and Simhika, the search through Lanka, the discovery of faithful Sita in the Ashoka grove, Ravana's demand and Sita's fearless refusal, Trijata's hopeful dream, Hanuman's gift of Rama's ring and Sita's jewel-token, the battle in Lanka, the burning of the golden city, and Hanuman's joyful return with news of Sita — woven throughout with gentle lessons of devotion, courage, cleverness, humility, unwavering faithfulness, and hope that never gives up.

Tips for consistent illustrations:

1. Generate Page 1 first to lock in Hanuman (and his giant + small sizes), then reuse him; do the same for Sita (sorrowful but radiant), Ravana, and Rama/Lakshmana for the final pages.
2. Keep the Master Style Block and Character Reference Sheet pasted at the top of every prompt.
3. Use the same aspect ratio (4:3) and the "digital children's-book illustration ... full-bleed, no border, no frame" keywords on every page so this book matches the rest of the series.
4. Keep demons, battles and the burning of Lanka stylized, exciting and non-gory, and lean on warm light, wonder and hopeful faces so it stays kid-friendly.
