How to Use This Book

Each page has two parts:

- Story Text for Kids — 2–4 simple, magical sentences to read aloud.
- AI Image Prompt — a richly detailed prompt written for a polished digital children's-book illustration look, kept visually consistent from page to page, full-bleed with no borders.

This book follows the Sundara Kanda storybook and is the great climax of the Ramayana. For best results, paste the Master Style Block (below) together with each page's prompt, or simply use each prompt as-is.

Master Style Block (for visual consistency)

Medium & style: Richly detailed digital children's-storybook illustration, in the style of a modern Illustrated Ramayana for Children cover — semi-realistic yet softly stylized characters with expressive friendly faces, large warm eyes and smooth skin; polished digital painting with gentle cel-shading, soft airbrushed gradients and crisp clean highlights; finely detailed costumes, fur, ornaments, armour and architecture; lush painterly backgrounds with atmospheric depth and soft focus.

Lighting: warm cinematic directional light with a gentle glowing rim-light and soft ambient glow.

Colour: vibrant, saturated, harmonious — ocean turquoise, saffron, marigold gold, royal crimson, forest green and deep indigo.

Skin tones: Only Rama (and, where they appear, divine forms of Vishnu and Shiva) has gentle blue/teal skin; every other character has a natural human skin tone — warm golden-brown, fair or tawny — and is never blue. Vanaras (monkey-people) keep natural fur colours; rakshasas (titans) are imposing but natural-toned.

Costume: strictly ancient, traditional Indian attire — dhotis, angavastrams, draped saris, mukut crowns and traditional gold jewelry, bark-cloth and deerskin for forest-exiles, classical warrior armour — with absolutely no modern clothing, fabrics, footwear or accessories.

Composition: dynamic, full-bleed, edge-to-edge, absolutely no border and no frame. Aspect ratio 4:3 (use portrait 3:4 for a cover).

The End of Yuddha Kanda

*This completes Book Six of the Ramayana — the Yuddha Kanda ("The Book of War") — retold in 30 chronological pages, faithfully preserving its core events and moral depth: the march to the sea, the coming of noble Vibhishana, the prayer to the Ocean and the building of the great bridge, the crossing to Lanka, the long war, Garuda's rescue, the fall of Kumbhakarna and Indrajit, Hanuman and the mountain of healing herbs, the Hymn to the Sun, the final duel and the fall of Ravana, honourable funeral rites, the crowning of Vibhishana, Sita's shining truth, the heavenly blessings, the joyful return to Ayodhya, and Rama's coronation and golden reign — woven throughout with gentle lessons of courage, devotion, loyalty, doing what is right, respect even for a foe, and the eternal triumph of good over evil.

Tips for consistent illustrations:

1. Generate Page 1 first to lock in Rama (blue-skinned), Sita, Lakshmana and Hanuman, then reuse them; do the same for Ravana, Vibhishana, Kumbhakarna and Indrajit.
2. Keep the Master Style Block and Character Reference Sheet pasted at the top of every prompt — especially the skin-tone rule (only Rama is blue; everyone else natural) and the ancient-attire rule (no modern clothing).
3. Use the same aspect ratio (4:3) and the "digital children's-book illustration ... full-bleed, no border, no frame" keywords on every page so this book matches the rest of the series.
4. This is the great war — keep all battles, demons and the fall of Ravana stylized, exciting and non-gory, leaning on glowing light, heroism and hopeful faces so it stays kid-friendly.
